THE NEWSPAPER FOR THE HOM

JOSEPH HEINRICH. WOODVALE AVENUE, ANSWERS SUMMONS

Native of Austria Came , Here With Parents at Age of 17

PENSIONER STEEL

Lost Right Leg in Accident in Mills Here 22 Years Ago

Joseph Aloysius Heinrich, 71, of 125 Woodvale Avenue, a resident of the Woodvale section for 54 years, died at Morcy Hospital at 2:45 o'clock this morning. He had been ill for the past month and was admitted to the hospital as a medical patient on April 23. Born in Austria, August 24, 1866.

Mr. Heinrich was a son of Karl and Antonio Heinrich, who came to this country when Joseph Heinrich was 17 years old and located in Woodvale. Shortly after his arrival here, Joseph Heinrich entered the employ of the old Cambria Iron; Company and after a long period of service there resigned to become a chef at the Merchants Hotel, Main Street, A few years later he returned to the mills and upon his retirement some six years ago, had a total service in the local plant of 48 years. He was a shearman in the Gautier department for many years. Twenty-two years ago Mr. Heinrich met with an accident at work, necessitating amputation of his right leg. On recovery he re-turned to his old position.

Mr. Heinrich and Anna Partson. of this city were united in mar-riage at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Railroad Street, on Octo-ber 2, 1900, by Rev. Father Theo-bald, O. S. B. Mrs. Heinrich survives, with these children: Anna, wife of Clarence O'Shea, rear 125 Woodvale Avenue, and Joseph Heinrich, jr., intermarried with Lena Pich, in, intermarried with Lens Pudleiner, 126 Maple Avenue.

Joseph A. Heinrich was a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church from the films he came to Johnstown and was affillated with St. Joseph's Society and the German Austrian Musical & Beneficial & B diety. He was a brother of Louis Heinrich, and Charles Heinrich, both of Woodvale Avenue and Ernest Heinrich of Ernest Heinrich of Gelatown Mrs. Anns Zwiener end Mrs. Bertha Bertot, both of Woodvale Avenue and Mrs. Antonio Bitiman of Cost

Two Persons Mee In Auto Mishap. Counties Over V

Cyrus V. Ammerman of Dysart, H. J. Stroster, 38, Are Victims

OPERATOR SOUGHT

World War Veteran Hit Along Road; Driver Makes Escape

Two men met their deaths as a result of leighway accidents in a four-county area over the weekend, and five persons were injured.

H. J. Stroster, 38, of 100 Washington / Street, Vandergrift, was killed instantly at 3:30 o'clock this morning when he is believed to have fallen asleep at the wheel of his car, which left Route 126 near the Bedford-Fulton County line and overturned. Stroster . thrown from the wreckage, his head striking a rock. The car also overturned on Smoster and he was pinned under wreckage for more than a half hour., He was dead when extricated. A physician said the man probably had been killed instantly as his skull was crushed when his head struck the Michael Shandosky of 13271/4 Sixteenth Street, Altoona, was injured. in the accident in which Stroster was killed.

Shandosky suffered lacerations above the left eye and body bruises and was treated at the Everett Hospital dispensary.

ospital dispensary.

Stroster and Shandoaky had been will close Will close Will close Will close Will close Will close Washington. D. C. over the have been a sek-end and were returning to and all det m Washington D. C. over the have been week-end and were returning to and all det Altoons, where both are employed except the Altoona where both are employed except the The Stroster car left the highway will be selewent down over a small embank the prise ment and overturned twice. Pro contestants of the State Motor. Police con ninth rade ducted the investigation estrosed despitable survived by his widow and dilication of the body has been in pared for burial at the D.S. Guing Funeral Home in Bedfords.

Dysart Man Hilled

(val) We connect to come the constant of the c

SOC

Handso Annou Poste

Prizes a offered by Medical Sc posters off and paroc fith grad training se to illustra ventive me as related

Vaccinat zation, per tion, corre venting he cold contro sight prot are among by the Med of Pennsyl Each cou cal contest to be enter prizes in a The Cambr $15 for the ond best an next seven rich, jr., intermarried with Lena |

Pudleiner,, 126 Maple Avenue. Joseph A. Heinrich was a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church from the time he came to Johns town and was affiliated with St Joseph's Society and the German-Austrian Musical & Beneficial Society. He was a brother of Louis Heinrich and Charles Heinrich, both of Woodvale Avenue, and Ernest Heinrich of Geistown; Mrs. Anna Zwiener and Mrs. Bertha Schrott, both of Woodvale, Avenue and Mrs. Antonio Bittman of Cost Street. Two brothers, Frank and Emil, preceded Mr. Heinrich in death!

Funeral services will be held on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, with a solemn high mass of requiem at St. Joseph's Church. Interment in the church cemetery, Geistown, will be directed by John R. Blimmel, mortician.

NEARLY 600 HEAR TALK ON RUSSIA

Approximately 600 persons heard Dr. Andrew Avinoff, director of the Carnegie Museum, Pittsburgh, lecture on the subject, "Christianity in Russia" at a meeting yesterday afternoon in the Franklin Borough High School auditorium:

The gathering, sponsored by the Russian Orthodox Churches in the Johnstown-Altoona District of the Pittsburgh Diocese, was held in connection with the local celebration of 950th anniversary of the birth of Christianity in Russia. Large delegations from each parish in the diocese attended the meeting, which was in charge of Rev. John Fedak, pastor of St. John the Baptist Russian Ortho dox Greek Catholic Church, Cone-maugh, and Very Rev. Peter Péroff, of SS. Peteryand Paul's Russian Orthodox Greek Catholic Church, Altoons, who is dean of the local district Special music was furnished by the choir of the Altoona church under the leader ahip of the Rev. Peroff, and the choir of the Conemaugh church directed by Professor Peter Kaklak. At party

LENORE L. SCHULTE AND PAUL REKRAYER

THIS CITY TO WED have sannounced the betrothal of their daughter, Miss Lenore Louise Schulte, to Paul Russell Ki sistant physical director of ohnstown Y. M. C.A. s a son of Mrs. With of Willow Street File anton the late Frank Kraver

C. S. Renz of the Bedford detail former are to of the State Motor Police, con- ninth grade or ducted the investigation. Stroster is survived by his widow and four children. The body has been prepared for burial at the D. S. Gump Funeral Home in Bedford.

Dysart Man Killed.

Cyrus W. Ammerman, 40, of Dysart, was injured fatally Saturday afternoon whenche was struck by a car on Route 53, two miles north of Ashville. The driver of the car which struck Ammerman has not yet been apprehended, although Pvts. G. K. Lodge and C. C Robinson of the Ebensburg detail, today continued an investigation into the accident and expect to make an arrest in the near fu-

Ammerman was removed to Altoona Hospital after the accident and died at 11:35 o'clock Saturday night. He suffered a double fracture of the skull, Ammerman and his brother, Charles, also of Dysart, had stopped their car to make repairs. Cyrus is said to have stepped from in front of the automobile into the path of the approaching wehicle. James Maher of 17 Osborn Street, Johnstown, was an occupant of the car which struck Ammerman, but did not know the name of the driver. The unidentified driver stopped his car, returned to the seene and placed the body of Ammerman in the latter's ... car. He then drove away. Prior to leaving the scene, however, the unidenti-fied motorist stopped the driver of a passing car-and asked him to education to be notify a doctor.

town Coal & Coke Corporation. His parents, Flank and Martha (Thompson) Ammerman, are deceased. Surviving are his widow. Mrs. in Oakland on Ma Grace (Homer) Ammerman, and go to the own in these, prothers and sisters; John posters and kinders william Ammerman, Philadelphia, William Ammerman, Van Ormer, Gadir PRESBYILL Ammerman, Beaverdale, Charle W. Ammerman, Dysart; and Kalir Overton, Lock Haven, Mrs. Berths Shumao, Osceola Mills, and Mrs. Edha, Mink, Juniata Funcial Tomorro Funerals services (will be duoted at 2 colook ton erndon at the Aome or Charles annerman at terment will be until ex-

lors pupils of and eighth grac

Dr. Arthur M man of the 1 charge, He ani are to be either 12 by 18 inches, ing recommende illustration box supporting mate but must not b framed. ""

A health slog not more than e used by contest colors, crayons, may be used in ters. Originalit thought will be tors, with no adany kind to be

Mrs. B. E. Mc the Humane Edi of the Cambria Parents and Teac that entries for t contest being spo teacher association to local P.-T. A. have them sent before May 15. Children in sc the county are dealing with some poster, contests ners will be ent Cyrus Ammerman was a native of Blair County. He had been em-All others—thos ployed in Portage by the Johnsawards-will be on contest, entries fo submitted before council meeting.